Dear Dr. Rullan,

Thank You for helping me look my best.

I consider it an honor to spend time with someone who has realized so many blessings.

Clearly you have been blessed as a Dermatologist and Surgeon. The method in which you have honed your skill has caused my trust in you to grow even more.

You have also been blessed with patience. The time and energy you spend to make sure every question is answered, and every safeguard is taken, truly is appreciated.

You have been blessed with wisdom. You have surrounded yourself with an incredible team of assistants. With each visit I have felt safe, informed, comfortable, and even pampered.

You have been blessed with equilibrium. From a personal and spiritual perspective it is so refreshing to see someone who approaches life as something more than a race for assets. It is evident you could be applying your skills in another location. The fact you practice and participate in the southern quarter of San Diego county generates a success beyond the professional realm. Thank you for putting people ahead of possessions.

With gratitude and respect, thanks again.
